The wedding and event industry in the area of northeast Florida is growing exponentially, and this growth means it is an ideal time for Linens by the Sea to continue to broaden its footprint. The company's newest increase in the specialty linens selection fits the Jacksonville markets' needs in the linen rental industry.

Anna Pohl, the Company's Director of Operations, is excited to see what her team achieves in this new territory. "I am looking forward to our market expansion. We have crafted our growth in the boutique linen industry to ensure the highest quality products and exquisite customer service and I know we will be able to service the need in this new market."

Linens by the Sea's expansion began in 2015 and continues today while maintaining the Orlando, Naples, Tampa, and Fort Myers areas with strict attention to detail. In 2015, Linens by the Sea's headquarters relocated to a new, larger warehouse location in Sarasota, Florida to house a wider variety of linens. The company also invested in top-of-the-line equipment for environmentally-conscious processes.

Owner of the company, Tim Boyle states "Linens by the Sea has grown from the passion of our people. Never losing focus of the big three key elements: quality, service, and selection, we have grown our business from local to regional, and soon to be national!"

In addition, Joy Perez in marketing is the Linens by the Sea team's newest addition, supervising the expansion effort. Pohl states, "I'm incredibly grateful to have Joy in a key role overseeing this process."
