U. S. Tent Provides Tents for 2017 College Football Playoff National Championship

Sarasota, FL (Wednesday, February 8, 2017) – U.S. Tent Rental, Inc., a locally owned and independent tent rental company in Sarasota, Florida has proven its superior rental products once again. On Monday, January 9, 2017, the company provided tents, rentals and linens for the 2017 College Football Playoff National Championship in Tampa, FL. Over 200,000 sq. ft. of tenting, over a ten day period was utilized.

One event US Tent Rental provided tent rental service for was the College Football AT&T Playoff Playlist at Curtis Hixon Park in downtown Tampa featuring Brad Paisley and Usher along with The Shadowboxers, Flo Rida and others. Other tented events included the sanctioned tailgate parties at Hillsborough Community College, numerous tents at Raymond James Stadium which hosted the College Football Playoff, and for ESPN parties at the Kress building.

U.S. Tent Rental worked with both National Championship teams, the Alabama Crimson Tide and the Clemson Tigers providing the rentals for their events. The featured tent styles selected for the National Championship events included clear top and structure tents. The clear top tent allows for moonlight viewing and the structured tents are wind rated to over 110MPH.

“The 2017 College Football Playoff National Championship had a significant economic impact on the Tampa Bay region, and we couldn’t be more proud to have participated in this national event,” says Tim Boyle, proprietor of US Tent. “It is important that our area grows and offers economic opportunities, and US Tent Rental is poised to be a part of that growth, not only in the tent rental industry but also in the linen rental industry. Our subsidiary, Linens by the Sea worked on this tremendous project as well and is expanding throughout Florida, especially in Tampa, Orlando, and most recently in Jacksonville,” he continued.

U.S. Tent Rental, Inc., based in Sarasota, Florida, that rents tents and other event rentals since 2001.
